to the faithful and tried friends and advocates of tuce in the House of Assembly and the Senate of this and to our worthy Governor. His Excellency Myron ark, (laud cheer,) we owe our best thanks and warm-ratitude, which we hereby most cordially express, the assurance that this people will never forget those ave been true to their planelples and their pledges, to of all opp sition and repress. It to our brethren of this jurisdiction and throughout tate, we offer our most hearty congratulations on the swhich has attended our labors. The basisfo our ir prohibition, and it especially becomes us to rejoice ur principles have been embodied in the legislation great Empire State.

Creier is prohibition, and it especially becomes us to rajoice that our principles have been embodied in the legislation of the great Empire State.

That to the various States in our Union, and to the provences on our northern border who have adopted the principles of prohibition in their legislation, we extend the right and of greeting, with the assurance that New York, having once marked her course, will never failer or fail. Athers.) Excelsior being her motte, true to its tecahings, the will ever be found in advance for truth and right.

That to the honored executives of the cities of New York and Brooklyn, who have proven themselves worthy by hour hitherto conduct, and to all in authority, we pleade urrestree to give aid and effort in the enforcement of the right trebitory law; having labored for its passag, it becomes a teleshor for its enforcement, and as good men and true, re shall do what may be done to rid our State from the urse of intemperance. (Applause.)

Baving with us upon this, the occasion of our rejoicings a the specess of our principles in our halls of legi-lation, she who has mase for himself a name among the friends of imperance, and whom entry, as well as desire, indicates that e should hence one who, moreover, is the author as well a advocate of the most tringent law yet passed in relation the aupression of the liquor trailio. Resolved, That as tender to our honored goest, the Hon. S. L. Tily, of New Brunswick, the M. W. P. of the Order of she ins of Temperance, our most hearty greating, (out choose;) if we him welcome to the Empire date and City, and to the first and the state of the order of she ready the second of the control of the control of the lates of the Order of the rest Grand Division or our Order, is a matter of sincer cause. We hall him as an able advocate, an enthusiastic lend, a faithful laborer, in this great cause; it is becoming at we should welcome him amongst us, and with all our lates we do so.

To all who loops for happier times under the new anspices of are brighter and happier days for our commonwealth and our courseless when free from rum power, and to all who with us would be co-laborers in this great effort, we pledge enserves that, untiringly and faithvilly, we will labor to enforce the law is this state, and preserve it until New York, in all her borders, shall be free from the indicaces and Hother Gallary, described in the programme as "isader of the Aleghanians," was next introduced, and sang. "The good time coming."

The Rev. Tinxonous L. Curlim then presented himself, and expressed his pleasure at being selected as the mouthpiece of the Order of the Sons of Temperance, to twice a hearty welcome to Brother filly, because in these days of pewter and pincibect, it was so unusual to find a man who had the ring of the true metal about him. To him it made no difference that the brother was not an American, for in such glorious enterprises as this he knew no national distinction. He took him cordinally by the hand not only breause he had always been true and loyal to her firtubs Majesty, but because he had been faithful and loyal to his King on high and to his sace. (Geers.) In these days of war and contention, it was pleasant to think that British and American temperance. (Renewed cheering.) They halled brether Tilley as the head of the national Order of the Sons of Temperance, now on his way to Charleston to precide over the gathering of the order, and the Empire State standing between the victory just schleved at Albany and the victory they hoped to schere over the thousands of cram choop yet to be scuttled, sends ner salutations to her brothers of the South and to the gallant Palmetto State. There was peculiar reason why brother Tilley should receive the greating, for New York was the birth place of the order, and the region of the ballot box; recond, the freedom of New Albany and the victory they h to attend the anniversaries of the Historical Society and of the literary societies of the colleges and universities, and even to be present at the convivial meetings held at the Astor House and the St. Nicholes. (Cheers and laughter.) He found no fault with them, however, for to his own master each man must stand or fall. The reversed gentleman concluded with a forciole appeal to men of all classes and professions to join in the great movement the meeting had assembled to aid, for, he said, America and America's God expect every true man to do his cuty. Grand Chaplain of the Order.

Police Intelligence. CHARGE OF FALSE PRETENCES.

Mr. Walter Patterson, charged with having obtained, by false pretences and fraudulent representations, a quantity of hops, valued at $14,000, from Garrett W. Ryckman, and committed to prison by Justice Consolly in consequence thereof, has since been released, having procured bail in the sum of $15,000. The examination of this case will come off on next Friday, before Justice Osbern, at the Mayor's office. ALLEGED DISHONESTY OF A DOMESTIC.

Margaret Quinn, a domestic, lately in the employment of Mrs. Catharine Hatfield, of 190 Prince street, was taken into custody yesterday on charge of stealing $68 from her mistress. On arresting the prisoner and searching her at the station house, $35 was discovered sewed up in the skirts of her dress and other articles of her wearing 'apparel. The accused was taken before Justice Wood, at the Essex Market Police Court, where, upon examination, she was committed for trial.

TO THE RDITOR OF THE HEBALD.

Under the head of Police Intelligence in your paper of to-day, it is stated that I was arrested on a charge of false pretences, &c., having obtained a quantity of hops valued at $14,000, &c. The fact or arrest is correct, but the causes imperfectly set forth. I purchased that, as I have many other, large lots of hops, as per sample, to be of first quality, and by accident discovered that the sellers were delivering a trashy and worthless article at the solp instead of the goods purchased. The facts in the case, and also the manner of my arrest, will appear in the full examination before the proper authorities, and with them I am willing to leave the matter.

MISSING BRIDE: OR

MIRIAM, THE AVENGER, by MRS. SOUTHWORTH, is published and for sale this day, at T. B. PETERSON'S, 102 Chesmut street, Philadelphis.

"Mrs. Southworth is, beyond all question, the most powerful female writer in America, if not in the world. No one over read a chapter of one of her works without wishing to read the whole book, and no one ever read one of her books without admiring the rare genius of its author, and wishing that she might soon write another. The 'Brising Bride' will be welcomed by such, especially; and those who have never read the works of this gitted woman should not fail to buy this book."—Jersey Blue
